

Reon Summer Internship program 2018

Supply Chain Management for Engineering Students

Reon Energy is part of the Dawood Hercules group, and is one of the leading EPC (Energy, Procurement and Construction) company in Pakistan that delivers cost environment friendly solar power solutions.

The internship is 6 weeks long, with a total of 15,000 PKR stipend paid.

Candidates send their CVs at ayesha.waseem@dawoodhercules.com

With email Subject line "NED Mechanical/Civil Engineering Intern Application" before 27th May 2018

Candidates will be required to:

- Draw "as is" stage of supply chain processes flow.
- Development of detailed scope of work documents for civil, mechanical and electrical works in coordination with product development, project team and supply chain members. Same to be use as standard information sharing format from project initial survey till execution.
- Development of quality checklists for project supplies and services for core components, consumables, civil services, mechanical erections, electrification and logistics management
- Compile the findings and document the project objective achieved

Eligibility:

- Mechanical or Civil Engineering
- 3rd or final year student
- Minimum CGPA 3.0