

Internship is considered as an integral part of students' learning and opens the door of future opportunities in their career. Internship develops the professional aptitude, skills and creates the discipline among the young professionals.

Pakistan Space and Upper Atmosphere Research Commission (SUPARCO) provides a platform to the university students to gain hands-on work experience to research and experimental leanings under the guidance of space scientists and engineers in the fields of space science, engineering and technology.

Final-Year bachelor's degree students having CGPA equal to or greater than 3.0 are eligible to apply online

(<http://221.120.199.36:8091/Home/internships>) for the subject internship of 4-8 weeks.

The application submission deadline is 15th March, 2024.